Mrs. O'Grady of

The Associated Motion Picture Advertisers, of 1457 Broadway, which has been particularly active in defending the industry against attacks made by Mrs. Ellen O'Grady, Flifth Deputy Police Commissioner, invited the commissioner to address its members thursday and Forty-first Street. In its invitation the association asserted it was eager to cooperate with Mrs. O'Grady.

In writing to Mrs. O'Grady, the association charged her with failing to snawer a series of questions propounded some cays ago. The commissioner rope to the coeperate with you to disinfect any public a week ago, was declared to be creative, indirect and meaningless.
